Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is a Fiscal Intermediary?
   A fiscal intermediary, also known as a fiscal employer agent or financial management service agent, helps participants (Medicaid recipients) and their representatives use Participant Directed Services. Our primary duties are to: 1) Provide protections and safeguards to participants, representatives and the State agency; 2) Complete financial transactions in accordance with your budget and program rules; 3) Generate reports for participants and state agencies showing financial transactions, budget data and other information applicable to the program. In Georgia, you are required to use a Fiscal Intermediary if you are self-directing your CCSP, ICWP, COMP or NOW waiver funding.

2. What is participant or self-direction?
   Participant directed, self-directed, or consumer directed services, are home and community based services that help people of all ages, with a wide range of disabilities, maintain their independence and determine for themselves what mix of personal assistance, supports and services will work best for them. Participant directed services give participants and their representatives control and responsibility over the goods and services they need. Participants or their family member/representative take on the role of managing these services and supports.
